The family property has been run by Maria and Toni Rosenberger with love and commitment for more than three decades - with the support of their son Michael for some time now.

The comfortable 4-star bed-and-breakfast hotel on the Danube was built in 1523 as a shipmaster and raftsman's house.

In addition to the double rooms, all with a roof terrace or balcony, the hotel also has a few suites and apartments. (non-smoking rooms)

Weißkirchen in the Wachau valley

The majestic Gothic parish church of Weissenkirchen rises among sunny, terraced vineyards, the river Danube and green forests. Together with the villages Joching, Woesendorf and St. Michael it forms the biggest winegrowing community in the Wachau.

In the middle rises the fortified church of Weißkirchen, which can be seen from almost every point in the area. The late medieval fortifications were built around 1530 and are largely preserved. Together with the Teisenhoferhof below, it forms a uniform weir system. The Teisenhoferhof, one of the most beautiful Renaissance courtyards in the Wachau, is part of the imposing fortifications of the church.

The romantic village has preserved its authenticity and is one of the most popular holiday destinations in the world heritage centre Wachau.

Enjoy wines, culture and various local treats in the heart of the Wachau.

Wachau

Wachau is full of hidden gems. Many places along the river where you stop offer cultural and natural highlights of the region.

One of the best ways to experience the Wachau landscape is to trace the route of the Danube River as it snakes its way through the countryside.

This beautiful stretch of the Danube has inspired romantic legends for centuries. One Story tells of King Richard the Lionheart of England who was imprisoned in a castle (Ruine Dürnstein) here.

It is undeniable that the beauty of the agricultural land of the Wachau surrounds the Danube.

The Wachau offers a perfectly preserved medieval landscape - including the architecture in the towns and villages - which has continued to change over time at the human pace.
